HOW TO PRESENT AND COMMUNICATE WITH INFLUENCE AND IMPACT

This is a highly practical session that will provide you with both the insight and the inspiration to influence and impact others in a wide range of professional and personal contexts. From Martin Luther King to Steve Jobs, leaders throughout history have used their abilities as communicators to influence and impact others with their message. Paul McGee has delivered over 3,000 presentations in a career spanning over 21 years. He's spoken in 36 countries to date in places ranging from Tehran to Texas. He's convinced that being a great communicator is not some gift bestowed upon you at birth. Although natural ability will play a part, we can all reach greater heights than where we are now in terms of our ability as communicators. Whether it's communicating with customers, colleagues, your boss or a community group there are ways to sabotage your message or alternatively succeed with it. Attending this seminar will help you avoid sabotaging your success and equip you with the tools required to develop your personal confidence and to present and communicate with impact and influence. By doing so you will enhance the success of your organization, your career, your professional reputation and your own ability to succeed in life.
