HOW TO INNOVATE LIKE EDISON: THE FIVE STEP SYSTEM TO ACHIEVE BREAKTHROUGH SUCCESS

Success in our rapidly changing and complex business environment demands that we learn how to think creatively and foster innovation. What if you could call on one of history's greatest practical innovator, Thomas Edison, to be your personal mentor in solving problems, embracing change and improving results? In this fascinating workshop New York Times best-selling author Michael J. Gelb will teach you the key principles of 'genius thinking' and how to apply them to your most important organizational challenges. Discover Edison's five step system for success which includes adopting a solution-centered mindset, kaleidoscopic thinking, and mastermind collaboration. More than just a fascinating history lesson, this class will teach you how to improve results by leveraging the power of your own genius, and the genius of your team.

You will be guided to apply Edison's innovation approach to address your most important organizational challenges.

Bonus content! Key lessons from Michael J. Gelbs best-selling book How To Think Like Leonardo da Vinci will be covered in the complimentary follow up session to this class!
