FROM ACHIEVEMENT TO FULFILLMENT: NAVIGATING THE PATH OF SUCCESS

Life is a delicate balance between achieving personal fulfillment and avoiding regret. This balance is influenced by six fundamental factors: purpose, meaning, achievement, relationships, engagement, and happiness. The ultimate goal is to live an "Earned Life" where every decision, risk, and effort aligns with a higher purpose, regardless of the outcome.

This program features advice from the top executive coach in the world and bestselling author of "The Earned Life". It is designed to provide individuals with some of the tools and mindsets necessary to lead a fulfilling and purposeful life. Participants will learn how to identify and overcome habits that hinder their growth, both personally and professionally. We will also explore the key factors that contribute to a fulfilling life that minimizes regrets.
