VIRTUAL SESSION (1-HOUR)

EMBRACING THE FUTURE OF WORK IN A RAPIDLY EVOLVING WORLD

This engaging one-hour program explores the transformative forces redefining the future of work. As technological breakthroughs, geopolitical shifts, and evolving generational expectations converge, the workplace is undergoing unprecedented change. Jake will offer forward-thinking strategies to help individuals and organizations navigate these disruptions, anticipate future trends, and adapt to the challenges of tomorrow's workforce.

With over 21 years of experience in U.S. Air Force intelligence and a proven track record as a thought leader in both government and the private sector, Dr. Sotiriadis brings unique insights into the impact of artificial intelligence, automation, and innovative leadership models on industries. Participants will leave with practical strategies to future-proof their careers and organizations by cultivating agility, building future-ready skills, and embracing new approaches to work in a rapidly evolving, interconnected world.

DR. JAKE SOTIRIADIS

Jake holds a Ph.D. in political science and geopolitical futures from the Manoa School at the University of Hawaii, an MA from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University, a Master of Philosophy in Military Strategy from the U.S. Air Force School of Advanced Air and Space Studies, a Master of Military Operational Art and Science from the Air Command and Staff College, and a BA in international studies from Norwich University.
